Remember Kelly Loeffler, Steve?

If you don't — Loeffler was one of the wealthiest members in the history of the Senate when Georgia Gov. Brian Kemp appointed her in 2020. And a staunch supporter of Donald Trump.

She lost to Rev. Raphael Warnock, claimed voter fraud, and pledged to contest the results of the 2020 election on January 6 — only backing down when a MAGA mob fought the police and invaded the Capitol.

Loeffler is back with a post-election report for Georgia Republicans that puts 2021 voter suppression laws front and center to the GOP's winning strategy.

Republicans instituted strict voter ID laws and restricted absentee ballot drop boxes. They even made it illegal to give water to people waiting in line to vote.

According to Loeffler, voter suppression and a strong GOP ground game were the reasons Republicans were able to win every statewide race — except her old opponent Rev. Warnock's.

If we're going to overcome GOP voter suppression laws and turn Georgia blue, we need to keep building. We can't pack up shop just because the election is over.
