friend,

Summer in Chicago is in full swing—school’s out, temperatures are rising, and another successful Futures Series just wrapped up!

Futures Series, a speaker series we host at the South Side high school Hyde Park Academy, exposes students to a wide range of career pathways they didn’t know existed or didn’t see themselves in previously.

Learn more about the Futures Series and check out all the speakers our students were able to connect with this year.

From visiting one of the largest African-American owned and operated businesses in the food industry, to speaking with the President and CEO of the Chicago Bears, Hyde Park Academy students were able to see leaders succeeding in exciting and impactful roles.

When the Obama Presidential Center opens, initiatives like this that help young people reach their full potential will be at the core of our work—but we’re not waiting for the physical space to open before we get involved with our community!

Thanks for taking a moment to learn about this program.
