Subject: Today's the big day to celebrate President Obama!

Today is President Obama's birthday, and people all around the country are chipping in to make it extra special. Will you join in with a gift to the Obama Foundation before his birthday ends?

SEND MY BIRTHDAY GIFT

A birthday is a natural time to take stock of where we are, and to set goals for the year ahead. As President Obama begins his 64th trip around the sun, he has laid out some key priorities. When you send a donation today, you'll do more than celebrate his birthday—you'll support the projects that matter most to President Obama:

- My Brother's Keeper Alliance. By addressing the systemic challenges that hold boys and young men of color back, we can help individuals reach their full potential and lift entire communities up.
- Girl's Opportunity Alliance. Education and empowerment are the keys to unlocking the potential of girls around the world.
- Leaders Program. Changemakers can come from anywhere—and nobody knows that better than President Obama. The Leaders Program inspires, trains, and connects emerging leaders so that they can build the future that we dream of.

Every one of these programs reflects the President's unshakeable faith in the power of young people to change the world. Show President Obama that you are with him by sending a special gift in honor of his birthday.

There are just a few hours left to get your birthday gift in. Tomorrow, I'll send President Obama a report to let him know how many people were inspired to chip in. I hope I can include a contribution from you.

Thank you for everything you do to support the Obama Foundation.

—Michael
