

THE JCSU HEALTH EQUITY FORUM - NC Region 3

COVID-19 impacted people differently depending on their race or ethnicity.

A higher number of Hispanic people experienced loss of income (37%) and change in employment (31%). Black or African American respondents experienced less COVID-19 impacts overall, however losing a loved family member or friend was more common among them (19.8%).

Want to know more ??

