

Environmental Justice Is Creative Culture

From Sol Nation <hello@solnation.org>

To Steve Johnston <sjohnston@tuesdayforumcharlotte.org>

Date 2024-08-07 12:00

Can't see this message? View in a browser

UNEARTHED Reception is a chance to delve deeper into SOL Nation and our impactful campaign "Environmental Justice is Creative Culture." We have showcased this initiative in various forms, but now we want to emphasize the significance of empowering Black youth through artistic expression within their community. Fellowship with us and join the conversation!

SPEAKERS

Davita Galloway

Davita Galloway is a perspective and creative entrepreneur. She is the CEO of Dupp&Swat, the Executive Director of CrownKeepers and the Chief Activations Officer of creative agency, Hue House. Adamant about the need for genuine expression, Galloway's work and presence is super authentic and has afforded many other opportunities. With that, Davita is a change agent, a creative, host, speaker, costumer, a doer, disruptor and a creator of all things dope. She is a former talk show host (Nita&Vita) and Editor in Chief of SPREAD magazine.

Bunny Gregory

Growing up in the 70s and 80s, Bunny Gregory realized there weren't any venues for black artists to express themselves in Charlotte. Because of her love for hip hop and pop art, she opened her own venue, the UNDERGROUND, in 2014, which quickly became a staple platform for Charlotte-based urban artists, musicians, and poets. In 2017, Bunny was dubbed "Queen Mother of Charlotte's Underground Hip Hop" by Creative Loafing Magazine. Bunny has recently launched a "Harlem Renaissance" on wheels. This UNDERGROUND Mobile Art Studio and Gallery for young artists serves low-income youth in West Charlotte where she grew up.

Join our SOL community leaders and advocates for an entertaining night of delicious food, live music by Rod the Real McCoy and a variety of spirits. The Suggested Donation is $40, however we have "Give What You Can" Tickets available as well. Each ticket includes entry, food and a drink ticket. Additional drink tickets will be sold at the event.

Purchase Tickets

Donate to Our Mission

UNEARTHED
OPENING RECEPTION
8/16 | 7pm-10pm

Environmental Justice Is Creative Culture! Join us in fellowship as we emphasize the significance of empowering Black youth through artistic expression within their community.

Speakers

Davita Galloway Bunny Gregory

Purchase tickets at www.solnation.org/events
Drink tickets will be available on location for purchase.

NoDa Area | 516 E. 15th Street Charlotte, NC 28206

Live Music by:
Rod the Real
McCoy

Share on social

Become UNEARTHED

This email was sent from this site.

If you no longer wish to receive this email, change your email preferences here.