Natasha MARCUS

NC Commissioner of Insurance

Steve, this is huge.

Carolina Forward just released their August poll of 800 registered North Carolina voters, and it shows that we are within striking distance—just 1% behind Mike Causey! That's right: my entrenched opponent is hanging on by a thread.

This razor-thin margin makes it clear: Mike Causey is now the most vulnerable incumbent on the Council of State. Voters across North Carolina are waking up to the reality that he has failed to do the job of Commissioner of Insurance - instead of protecting us from unreasonable and unjustified rate increases, he sides with insurance companies to raise our rates and accepts their campaign money to stay in office.

9. If the election were held today who would you vote for in each of the following elections?

	Natasha Marcus (Democrat)	Mike Causey (Republican)	Undecided
Commissioner of Insurance	39%	40%	20%

Now, we have momentum at our backs to close this gap and pull ahead. It will take immense resources to beat Causey — we need to pay for targeted ads that explain the race and the candidates, palm cards to hand out at precincts and voting sites in all 100 counties, and mail to the homes of those undecided voters. With your help, we will have the resources to bring real, positive change to our insurance system and relief to North Carolina families.

If you chip in today — $25, $50, or whatever you can — your support will directly power our campaign in this final stretch. This poll is a wake-up call—Causey is vulnerable, and we're in striking distance. Steve , let's show him what we're made of.
