Have you read any good books this summer? Or is there a song you've deemed the "song of the summer"?

President Obama just shared his picks for his summer reading list and playlist, and your favorites might have made the cut! Check out his picks and get some inspiration here:

Since his time in the White House, President Obama has championed the arts and believed in their power to offer new perspectives and inspire change.

Opening up one of these books or hitting play on the playlist might offer you a new perspective or teach you something interesting about the world around you. Take a moment to read through President Obama's picks and find something new to dive into!
