Thank you for a wonderful Commit To 80 Campaign Kickoff!

We're excited to share photos of our 2024 Commit To 80 Campaign Kickoff event! It was a wonderful, inspiring evening that left us feeling more grateful than ever to be doing this work with such amazing partners.

Thank you to everyone who attended, and to our speakers for the evening: Bobby French, principal of Pineville Elementary School, and Dr. Devonya Govan-Hunt, president of Black Child Development Institute Carolinas. We also want to thank Charlotte's first youth poet laureate, Vanessa Hunter, and Charlotte's first poet laureate, Jay Ward, for their powerful performances of spoken word poetry.

We are all a piece of the puzzle for the children in our community, and together, we can improve early literacy. For ways to get involved today, visit CommitTo80.org.
